

Technical data sheet

page 1 of 1

- Characteristic: Akemi® Cleaner I is an alcohol-based solvent-based cleaner. The product is characterized by the following characteristics:
- very good cleaning and degreasing effect
 - free of methanol, CHC, aromatic and paraffinic solvents
 - free of organics
 - no ventilation required
 - dries quickly and residue-free
- Application: Akemi® Cleaner I is used to clean adhesive, putty and sealing surfaces as well as to remove uncured adhesive, putty and sealant residues on natural and artificial stone, tiles, ceramics, glass, non-painted wood, metals, many plastics and painted surfaces. Akemi® Cleaner I is also suitable for cleaning tools.
- Special notes:
- To protect the hands Akemi® Apply the liquid glove.
 - Before use, test the compatibility with the surface in an invisible place.
 - For proper waste disposal, completely empty containers.
- Storage: 2 years in the well-sealed original container with cool storage.
- Safety: Please refer to the safety data sheet.
- Please note: The above information has been prepared according to the latest state of development and application technology of our company. Due to the large number of different influencing factors, this information as well as other oral or written application-related information can only be of a non-binding nature. In individual cases, the user is obliged to carry out his own tests and tests; this includes, in particular, trying out the Product in an inconspicuous place or the production of a sample.